MISCELLANEOUS.

HOW'S YOUR LIVER?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acrs with extraordinary power and efficacy.

Never been Disappointed.

As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

and Loss of Life.

MOBILE, December 30th.—News was re-ceived here late last night of the burning of the steamer Bradish Johnson, used as a boarding-house at Jackson, on the Bigbee river, eleven miles above Mobile, on Wednesday night. The Johnson was lying with her nose in the bank, and the gang-plank out. A. C. Yeall, one of the bosses, gave the following description of the fire: "I had just gone to bed, when I heard a cry of 'Fire!' I rushed out into the cabin. There had been a party of men there playing cards, and they saw the smoke rising. When I came into the cabin the fire seemed to be in the state-room att of the They all came running forward, about the same time we got there. The vessel burned very fast, and was a solid mass of flames in a moment. When I had reached the bank I turned around and saw the pilot-house fall in with the negroes. They fled up the bank in a mob and rushed to the woods, where they huddled like frightened sheep, and could not be persuaded to come down again to the boar. They knew that some of their number were they had not be persuaded to come down again to the boar. They knew that some of their number were they had not be persuaded to come down again to the boar. Skiffs were manned and sent to their rescue. They picked up Mr. Daly, one of the Carson men, and William Neal. An Englishman in one of the skiffs had two negroes right near him, but they sank out of sight. There is no telling just how many lost their lives in the fire and in the river. Some eay that the others are missing but all that say that ten others are missing, but all that I know of are two negroes-Lewis Adam and Benjamin Bush—who were drowned, and two white men missing. I think two other white men were burned with the bow, and there must have been others, for I don't think they had a chance to be awakened and then escape."

MURDEROUS AFFRAY. one Man Killed and Two Others Fatally Wounded.

DENVER, December 30th .- A News Pueble special says: A terrible and bloody affray ook place this evening among some Ital ians gathered in the notorious Italian dive kept by A. Manbuco, adjoining Union avenue bridge. A party of them were around a table gambling, when one, named Gaeteno Delioa, finding himself cheated, jumped up, drew a revolver and began shooting. He fired five shots, the result dangerously hurt. The one now dead is Pascala Serica. His brother, Felicia, was shot in the neck and will probably die. Peter Shultz was shot in the mouth and the bullet lodged in the back of the mouth and the bullet lodged in the back of the mouth and the studied coldness in the mouth and the bullet lodged in the back of the mouth and the studied coldness in the studied coldness i the bullet lodged in the back of the neck. New York, December 30th.-General John Hewston, of San Francisco, has been spending some time at the Hoffman House. He says everything in California is prosperous, and that San Francisco is having a steady and substantial growth. "It is a mistake to think," he said, "that because by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. fortunes are not being made as rapidly out millionaires have come to New York to live. This is easily explained by the fact that New York is the financial center of the country. Men like D. O. Mills cannot utilize their vast fortunes out there, as there is not a demand for money. Then, according to reports, it would seem that road people thought the road would make San Francisco within a short time a rival of New York, and that it would all at once dump a million people into our State. continue to spread throughout this city, also in Brooklyn, to an unprecedented extent. The deaths for December thus far have been 225, against 183 for the first nine months of the year, while cases during the same period have run up as high as 200. At present the fatal cases are eight or nine daily, chiefly among children from six months to two and a half years old. In many of the temperate houses, in cases many of the tenement houses, in consequence of carelessness or indifference, all the children in the place, one after another, are stricken down.

EFFORTS TO REFORM MUNICIPAL GOV-

Few questions of political economy have been more frequently or more intelligently debated recently than that of mismanagement in municipal government Just now the chief metropolis of the Pacific coast is wrestling with the subject. and struggling for reform through the aid of a Board of Freeholders which is constructing a new charter, and this gives the subject local interest. Among the more forcible and exhaustive monographs touching the subject is that by Mr. Crandon in the Popular Science Monthly. It is a hopeful sign that such discussion is engaged in, and that the people follow it with interest. It is, however, one-sided, since there has not as yet appeared any advocate of pres-

THE LAND OF OLIVES .- No doubt can be entertained that this empire of California will one day raise olives for the world. The warfares of the Mediterranean coasts make the olive trade experimental and spasmodic. We do not raise olives that are so rich as those of Spain or the south of France; yet they are nearly so, considering the years of the trees. It takes a number of years for the raising of olive trees; but when they come into bearing, the yield is great in coin. The people who buy the fruit take it from the tree; buy it by the REMOVAL OF LOGAN'S REMAINS TO THE CAPITOL.

The Casket Submerged in Flowers -Arrangements for the Funeral To-day.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

WASHINGTON, December 30th .- A sheet fresh-fallen snow covered the ground this morning, and the skies were overcast and somber. At the Logan mansion, all preparations for the removal of the dead statesman had been perfected during the night. The remains lay still in the chamber where the General died, but had been placed in the casket. They are clad for burial in the General's ordinary citizen's dress of black. Upon the left breast are the badges of the Fifteenth Army Corps, with the legend, "Forty Rounds," the Grand Army and the Loyal Legion, and upon the lapel are the buttons of the Grand Army and the Loyal Legion. The elaborately-draped receptacle, whose hermetic "John A. Logan, United States Senator. THE BODY IN STATE.

> The funeral cortege arrived at the Capitol at 1:30, amid the silence of thousands of persons who had assembled in the rotunda. The casket was then placed upon the bier prepared for its reception. In accordance with the arrangements, there was no service of any kind, and the people present were requested to withdraw until 2 o'clock, when the lid of the casket will be opened and the public be permitted to view the ARRANGING FOR THE FUNERAL. Washington, December 30th.-The following orders for the formation and conduct of the funeral procession was made Washington, December 30, 1886.

The Marshal announces the following onward march of a newer, better, purer orders and arrangements for the formation civilization. We have been instructed in and movements of the funeral procession orders and arrangements for the formation essons that have done much to maintain of the late Senator John A. Interesting Relics from the Royal Savage. On October 10, 1776, the waters of Lake Champlain floated fleets of American and British schooner gunboats. The America fleet, as well as all the land forces, were in command of Benedict Arnold, and on the particular date mentioned above he was on board of the gun schooner Royal Savage. During the day the schooner was attacked by a number of British vessels, and, being overpowered, it was decided to scuttle her. This was done off Valcour Island, and Arnold and his men escaped to the mainland. From that day until the 10th of October last no attempt had been made to exactly locate the spot where the wooden ribs of the Yankee schooner lay. On Octo-ber 10th, of this year, Captain W. P. Duncan, who has just raised the steamer Pavonia, arrived in Burlington with a gang of men from a trip to another lake in the vicinity, where they had been engaged in dock building. The story of the Royal Savage was told the Captain, and he decided to investigate. Secur ing a boat and guide, he loaded his equip ments and proceeded to the spot pointed out by the guide. > SPRINGS, WELLS AND RIVERS .- Each one of these sources has its accompanying dan-gers. Only in sparsely settled countries can springs and wells be depended upon for potable water. People awakening to the dangers of well water seek for some general supply after the manner of city vater works, and it so happens that this often means flying from one danger into the arms of another. We agree with the Sanitary Era that all public water supplies should be purified at their source. Means have been perfected by which thousands nillions] of gallons of water can be filtered daily before being sent on its way through the pipes to the consumers. It is no small advantage of this method, that the hydrants will not need frequent cleansing, to the great waste of water.—The Health Monthly.

JAMES DODS PARDONED .- The Governor yesterday issued a pardon to James Dods, who, while City Treasurer of Oakland, was convicted of embezzling public funds, and in June, 1878, sentenced to imprisonment for five years. Dods had but three more months to serve. The Mayor of Oakland, the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county, and prominent citizens of that county, petitioned for his pardon. He lost the money in stock speculations, and at the time the crime was committed his friends claim he was in a physical state entitling him to great consideration.

Biggest Account Books in America. In a Wall-street banking house are to be een the biggest account books in America. They average from two feet square to the bigness of the top of a desk, and the most ponderous is a load for an able-bodied clerk. The covers are half an inch thick, and material enough for a pair of leather breeches is consumed in every one. When ranged in order in the section of the vault consecrated to them, they present a most magnificent array. If Goliah were alive and in trade, these would be the books for him. I have an idea that their imposing appearance is one of their recommendations to favor, though assured that their utility is their chief title to existence.

It appears, also, that these large and massive volumes are specially calculated for self-preservation. There is no question but that our city and vicinity will have a large increase of population within the next year, and that an era of prosperity is near us. A RELIABLE late CITY DIRECTORY is one of the necessities of the boom. We propose to get up such a Directory, to be issued in JANUARY NEXT, and we ask your assistance to our Canvasser in procuring names of residents and information necessary to the work. As making a Directory entails a large expense, we also ask that you assist in defraying such expense by liberality in subscriptions and advertising patronage, feeling sure that your outlay will "come back" to you many-fold.

Our Directory will contain the names, places of business, and residences of all the adult population of the city, including names of merchants, manufacturers, business and professional men, bookkeepers, clerks, salesmen, laborers, etc., together with a BUSI-NESS DIRECTORY; also, general review of Sacramento business interests, tables of statistics, directory to State, County and Municipal Governments, fraternal societies, postal regulations, and a list of post, express and telegraph offices of the Pacific Coast.

most importance to those who are both producers and consumers. It cheapens all that he buys and enhances the price of all he produces. The "LANGFORD COLONY" is most advantageously situated in this respect. It is between two railroads that both connect with steamboats that run from the Sacramento and San Joaquin points to the Golden Gate. This gives the cheapest freight and passenger rates for the distance on this Coast. The markets for all kinds of products are good. SURROUNDED BY LIONS. Dangerous Predicament to be in, and How it Feels to be There. In all my previous African experience I and never known what it was to be in real langer from the attacks of lions. The king i beasts had hitherto exhibited a provoking shyness and persistent dislike to cultivate my acquaintance—so much so that I often used to complain that I gained nothing from my wish to know the lion at home, and that I might learn more about him in Regent's Park than in the savagest wilds of Africa. But ever since the troubled night which we spent at the Mkuynni I ask no more for leonine visits, especially in the darkness of the small hours, and will content myself with an occasional journey to the zoological gardens, where I can see this grandest of cats in a safe and comfortable cage. Soon after we had retired to rest on this occasion, when the men had begun to snore round their fires, wrapped up in dusky white clothes like so many mummies, and when the leader of the caravan was curling himself snugly between the blankets, the most terrific roar you ever heard started us all into sudden wakefulness. Though the lion that uttered it was probably forty or fifty yards distant, the sound of his thunderous bellow seemed to come from our very midst. I sat up in bed and looked uneasily about me, but nobody complained of being eaten, so I lay down again, and even began to think this very interesting and very African, full of local color, and so on. But now on our right and left, on either side of the river, a chorus of loud roaring began. The night was yet pitchy dark, for the moon would not rise till the early morning.
